

Gentlemen: XM radio has been the single best invention in the last decade. The drivel that passes for radio entertainment on "commercial" radio, has not been missed by me. Leave XM alone and let me and the "subscribers " decide what content we wish to pay for. Sincerely; George E. Maynor